DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

- 1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-8, drawn to a flame retardant mixture, classified in class 252, subclass 609.
 - II. Claims 9-15, drawn to a process for preparing flame retardant flexible polyurethane foams, classified in class 521, subclass 1+.
 - III. Claims 17-20, drawn to a method for producing low-emission flame retardant flexible polyurethane foam, classified in class 521, subclass 1+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

- 2. Inventions I and (II and III) are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be used as a fertilizers.
- 3. Inventions II and III are drawn to patentable distinct methods of producing flame-retardant flexible polyurethane foams because the method of Group II requires that the halogen-free hydroxyalkyl phosphonates of the formula I and the chlorinated phosphoric esters are added to the reaction mixture of polyisocyanates to produce the flexible polyurethane foam whereas Group II claims requires that the halogen-free hydroxyalkyl phosphonates of the formula I and the chlorinated phosphoric esters are added to the already formed flexible polyurethane foam.

- 4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
- 5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
- 6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
- 7. A telephone call was made to Anthony A. Bisulca on 1/30/06 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
